Program Calendars to Build Strong Units

Session 2 – Let the Calendar Build Itself

ANCHOR CALENDAR QUICK START GUIDE

From Session 2, Building Strong Units through Program Calendars Webinar Series

Purpose

Before planning activities, identify the events and schedules that already shape your year. Instead of asking: "What should we do?", ask: "What already exists, and what fits here?"

Add These Anchors

School

- Open Houses
- First Day of School
- Conferences
- Breaks & Holidays
- Major School events

Council & District

- Popcorn sale
- Scouting for Food
- Camporees
- Klondike
- Summer Camp

Community

- Sports seasons
- Festivals
- Major local events

Unit Traditions

- Recruiting events
- Courts of Honor
- Blue & Gold Banquet
- Annual campouts
- Other recurring activities

Then Look for Patterns

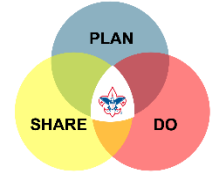

- Where are the busiest months?
- Where are the best opportunities?
- What conflicts become visible?
- What surprises you?

Remember

1. This anchor list is not comprehensive. You may find items you need to apply to your anchor calendar. This is meant to be a guide.
2. You are not yet building your program calendar. You are creating a planning framework that helps you understand the shape of your year before making commitments.
3. Clarity Beats Completeness - Gather the information. See the year. Then begin planning.
